

Exceptions to Article 10

The measure referred to in Article 9 (ordering a 14-day quarantine) does not apply to:

1. daily/weekly cross-border workers who are holders of proof of having an employment contract in EU or other Schengen Area member states, i.e. a signed statement in which the reason for crossing the border as a daily cross-border worker is justified;
2. persons engaged in economic activities who on crossing the border present proof of such economic activities in the Republic of Slovenia or abroad (certificate of registering the start of economic activities and A1 certificate in accordance with the act regulating cross-border provision of services) who are returning on the same day and present a medical certificate not older than three days proving that they tested negative for SARS-CoV-2 (COVID-19). Where a person is employed with a foreign company providing services in the Republic of Slovenia and is staying in the Republic of Slovenia, they must, on crossing the border, also submit residence address in the Republic of Slovenia and a medical certificate not older than three days proving that they tested negative for SARS-CoV-2 (COVID-19);
3. persons posted abroad in the international transport sector or such persons returning home who are in possession of a "Certificate for International Transport Workers" referred to in Annex 3 of the Communication from the Commission on the implementation of the Green Lanes under the Guidelines for border management measures to protect health and ensure the availability of goods and essential services (OJ C no. 96 of 24. 3. 2020, p.1) or another appropriate document proving that the person has been posted by the employer;
4. Persons carrying out the transport of goods to or from the Republic of Slovenia and to goods transport in transit;
5. citizens of EU or other Schengen Area member states travelling through the Republic of Slovenia to another country in the same day;
6. diplomatic passport holders;
7. persons providing public services (e.g. energy, healthcare, transport, utility services) for which they have been issued a certificate by the competent ministry if ordering a quarantine could result in major social or economic damage due to non-provision of these services;
8. members of protection and rescue services, healthcare services, the police and firefighting service and persons carrying out humanitarian transport for the Republic of Slovenia who are crossing the border in order to perform their duties;
9. citizens of the Republic of Slovenia, Republic of Croatia, Republic of Austria, Italian Republic or Hungary who are owners or tenants of land on both sides of the state border and are involved in agricultural activities;
10. holders of proof of a scheduled doctor's appointment or treatment/surgery in the Republic of Slovenia or another EU or Schengen Area member state on the day of crossing the border;
11. persons crossing the border because of education and schooling or scientific research in the Republic of Slovenia or another EU or Schengen Area member state who present adequate proof, and their parents or other persons transporting them across the border and returning on the same day;
12. persons crossing the border daily or periodically who are employed in an educational institution in the Republic of Slovenia or abroad as visiting higher education teachers or are involved in research projects in the Republic of Slovenia or abroad and who present adequate proof;
13. persons attending the funeral of a close relative in an EU or another Schengen Area member state and leaving or returning to the Republic of Slovenia on the same day, presenting proof of the date and time of the funeral;

14. persons crossing the border for family reasons in order to maintain relations with close family members who are returning on the same day;

15. persons who are close relatives of citizens of the Republic of Slovenia or living with them in the same household and who have permanent or temporary residence in an EU or another Schengen Area member state;

16. persons who own real property or have an aircraft or vessel registered in the Republic of Slovenia and have proof of ownership, together with close family members;

17. persons who have a confirmed booking of overnight accommodation in a tourist facility in the Republic of Slovenia and have proof of booking.
